Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 1-11, 24-25, and 28-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Klinger. Klinger shows the use of an ergonomic support (4) comprising a two guide rails (1) and archable pressure surface (5) having an upper and lower end, whereby one of the upper and lower is movably attached to the guide rails. A traction element (14) is engaged to slide an upper end of the archable pressure surface. Klinger further shows the use of a weight distribution surface (8) fixed to the pressure archable surface at an apex thereof (see Fig. 2), which would inherently be disposed between the archable pressure surface and a seat cushion of a seat when mounted therein. Klinger further discloses that the weight distribution surface is flexible, could be made from either metal or plastics and be ribbed (see col. 9, lines 46-60).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 13-23, 26-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Klinger. Klinger shows all of the teachings of the claimed invention except the use of a weight distribution surface being tapered at upper and lower edges thereof or being substantially high as the archable pressure surface. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice to modify the weight distribution surface of Klinger, to be tapered, or as high as the archable pressure surface, since applicant has not disclosed that a tapered, or high weight distribution surface solves any stated problem and it has been recognized that a mere change in size is within the scope of one of ordinary skill in the art. In re Rose (CCPA 1955). Furthermore the method steps as recited would have been incorporated with the use of the invention, as taught by Klinger.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-32 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
